Dear Parent/Carer,

Re: Year 10 English Text – Of Mice and Men

Next term in English we will be studying John Steinbeck’s Of Mice and Men. The students will be writing an English Language Controlled Assessment about this novella and also answering questions about it in their English Literature examination.

This is a crucial text and therefore we suggest that the students buy their own copy if possible. The book is available on Amazon (link below) where there is also the option to get a second hand and slightly cheaper copy where preferred. This will allow the students to annotate their copy of the book and have it at home for homework and revision.

Thank you for all your support this term with their controlled assessments.

Yours sincerely,

Ms L. Hamilton
Acting Head of English
